RECORD OF THE RESEARCH AREA (Period 2014-2019)

GROUP ACTIVITIES

Cancer in the Valencia Region is one of the major health problems, therefore one of the high priorities of the health system, as is reflected in the Regional Health Plan. It is the second leading cause of death, with 28.1% of deaths in men and 19.1% of deaths in women. It also means 10% of revenues in public hospitals. This led the development of the Oncology Plan, where one of the pillars is the development of cancer research. The group is working in several action routes: To identify cancer determinants and causes, to eliminate or reduce exposure to known risk factors, to early detect cancer through screening and to improve cancer treatment and cancer patients care. The research group is mainly compound for professionals working at the public health services (90%), implementing the prevention programmes and the local or regional services being dedicated at this research area partially in a 10% of their working time.
